

Upon entering the premises, all participants are contractually obliged to follow the regulations of the appendix. Please find the regulations within the premises. Participants who are unwilling to enter the premises through the elevated gateway may enter through the door, on the condition that they will intake given amount of water.

Regulations

Conditions of Countenance

- i. All participants are responsible for any natural and unnatural occurrences inside and out of the premises.
- ii. By way of inhabiting the premises, all participants are in a binding contract.
- iii. The participants can change the rules at any time.
- iv. Rules cannot be changed more than one at a time.
- v. There cannot be more than two rules at once.

Attention: if you are allergic about hydrating yourself, you are forbidden to enter the premises.